The BRADD CEDS Mini Summit provides direct support for the region’s vision for economic development and improved quality-of-life, by providing training to support various Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) objectives at the regional and county-levels. Across the 8 breakout sessions offered at the Summit, over 227 local strategic plan objectives and 45 regional objectives are supported. A breakdown of how each session impacts local and regional objectives is outlined below. For more information on the local and regional plans, including a detailed listing of all objectives, visit planning.bradd.org.
